CALL FOR ARTISTS:

Northern Manhattan Arts Alliance (NoMAA) announces its next exhibition Immigrant Too, a follow-up to NoMAA's previous show of 2010, titled Immigrant.

This second exhibition delves into the artist's notion of being an "immigrant," how he or she responds to the present immigration debate as it is carried out in personal, public, and political spaces, and what approaches the artist takes, from the subtle and conceptual, to the blatantly political. All artists are encouraged to apply.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS: MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2013 5PM EST

ELIGIBILITY: ARTISTS RESIDING IN THE MANHATTAN COMMUNITIES OF EL BARRIO, HARLEM, INWOOD, AND WASHINGTON HEIGHTS. All fine art media will be considered for the exhibit.

PLEASE READ AND FOLLOW THE GUIDELINES CAREFULLY

In order to be considered, artists should submit via email the submission form, and all relevant attachments no later than Monday, September 9, 2013, before 5pm EST.

Email submissions to: nomaaprog@nomaanyc.org | Questions: 212.568.4396

ALL SUBMISSIONS MUST CONSIST OF:

1. Submission form
2. Bio/Resumé (2 pages maximum - Word or PDF)
3. Artist's Statement (1-2 paragraphs - Word or PDF) commenting on the themes of the work as they relate to this exhibit, the process used or other pertinent descriptive material

4. Five digital images of available work (please follow image specifications detailed below)
5. Image & Price list (Word or PDF) with images of each work and its corresponding title, date completed, medium, dimensions, & selling price
